STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT
CONDUCT

Students of all College programs, curriculum and non-curriculum, will be expected to conduct themselves at all times as mature and responsible individuals and should show a high regard for College facilities, property, and for the personal rights and property of others. Enrolling students are responsible for acquainting themselves with College regulations, including the Code of Conduct.

The act of enrollment at Vance-Granville Community College indicates an acceptance by the student of published rules and policies of the College. Each enrolled student is considered to be a responsible adult, and Vance-Granville Community College assumes and requires that men and women who enroll in various programs and classes will maintain standards of conduct appropriate to the collegiate atmosphere of Vance-Granville Community College. More stringent policies of professional behavior may be required in specific programs. Detailed information can be found in the program student handbook.

Students may be suspended or dismissed for conduct that is considered in violation of the Student Code of Conduct while on campus or while participating in school-sponsored activities either on or off campus.

The decision to suspend or dismiss students for violations of the College Code of Conduct will be at the discretion of the Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement, & Success. Pending an investigation, college administrators or campus security may require a student to leave campus and not return until instructed by the Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement, & Success.

I. Classroom Conduct

The classroom provides a place for learning and the exchange of ideas. In order for teaching and learning to occur, the appropriate environment must exist that includes respect, civility, and common courtesy. To help create this environment, the following items may be regulated on the course syllabus and may vary from instructor to instructor. Ask your instructor if you are unsure of the classroom rules. There may be additional items regulated by your instructor that are not listed here. Infractions of basic classroom rules will typically be addressed by your instructor; however, repeated or serious infractions may be referred for formal disciplinary sanction.

1. Tardiness
2. Attendance
3. Food and drink
4. Bringing guests to class
5. Conversation during class
6. Required protective equipment
7. Minor disruptions during class
8. Cell phones and other electronic devices
9. Temporary dismissal from class
10. Plagiarism or Academic Dishonesty*

(*An instructor may impose loss of credit for an individual assignment)

While students are on Vance-Granville Community College properties or at a Vance-Granville Community College-sponsored event, acts that are illegal or against the College’s rules and regulations may be subject to disciplinary action. The following actions are specifically prohibited at Vance-Granville Community College.
Academic Dishonesty (Repeated or Severe Violations) – Students may not cheat or attempt to deceive instructors or any College staff member on assignments, tests, exams, etc. Plagiarism, which includes paraphrasing or summarizing another person’s words, without proper acknowledgement is prohibited. Academic dishonesty also includes assisting or attempting to assist another student in an act of academic dishonesty.

PLAGIARISM POLICY AND PROCEDURES

POLICY
The college recognizes plagiarism as defined in Black’s Law Dictionary as “the deliberate and knowing presentation of another person’s original ideas or creative expressions as one’s own.” Plagiarism will not be tolerated at Vance-Granville Community College.

Faculty will state the College’s definition of plagiarism on course syllabi. Individual departments/programs and instructors may have more stringent plagiarism standards, and in this case, the department/program/course standards shall be clearly stated on the syllabi and shall be followed. Faculty will apply the policy and procedures consistently.

CLASS PROCEDURE
a. Following the first recorded incident of plagiarism in a class:

The instructor records a zero for the student on the assignment and informs the student of the zero grade due to the plagiarism incident. The instructor will ask the student to acknowledge the first incident of plagiarism in writing. The instructor reports the student and the incident to the student’s academic advisor, department chair and/or program head, and academic dean, and Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement & Success. The instructor refers the student to the Academic Success Center for coaching on how to recognize and how to avoid future incidents of plagiarism. This first incident will be documented in Starfish and an email will be sent to the student to advise him or her of this violation of the College’s Plagiarism Policy. In addition, a letter will be sent to the student from the Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement & Success.

b. Following the second recorded incident of plagiarism in the same class:

The instructor records a zero for the student on the assignment and informs the student of the zero grade due to the plagiarism incident. The instructor also informs the student that an F# grade will be entered for the course. The F# is a plagiarism-specific grade that is assigned when a class is failed because of plagiarism. In addition to informing the student of the F# grade, the instructor reports the student and the incident to the student’s academic advisor, department chair and/or program head, academic dean, and Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement & Success. The student is not allowed to return to the class for the duration of the semester. The F# grade should be entered immediately for the course grade. The student is not permitted to drop the course with a W grade to avoid the penalty. If a student does manage to drop the course (without the instructor’s approval) with a W grade, the instructor will submit a grade change form to replace the W grade with the F# grade. The Registrar should confirm the plagiarism acts and implement the change.
The following documentation will record the plagiarism.

The information from this section of the catalog is reproduced on the back side of official transcripts from the college. This information should also be updated on transcripts so that recipients of an official transcript are notified of what an F# grade represents.

COLLEGE PROCEDURE

The Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement & Success will enforce the college’s policy as follows:

a. Following a student’s second offense at the College:

   The Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement & Success sends a letter of academic warning to the student informing him/her that the discovery of any additional act(s) of plagiarism or other academic dishonesty in any course will result in suspension and/or expulsion from the College.

   If two acts of plagiarism are committed in the same course, the Academic Dean submits an F# grade for that course.

   Multiple acts of plagiarism in separate classes could lead to a suspension. Once an F# grade has been received or a suspension has been given to a student for multiple acts of plagiarism in separate courses, then any further acts of plagiarism in any course may lead to another suspension and/or expulsion.

   Expulsion will not be the consequence of plagiarism until either one F# grade has been received or one period of suspension has been previously served.

b. Following a student’s third infraction:

   The Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement & Success suspends or expels the student from the College and provides the student with written notification of the decision. An appeal of the suspension/expulsion decision can be made through the appropriate Academic Division Dean. Students should follow the academic appeals process as outlined in the College catalog. Notification of the decision is also given to the student’s current instructor(s), academic advisor, academic deans, satellite campus deans, and security staff at all campuses.

c. If, following suspension for a third infraction, a fourth infraction is discovered:

   The Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement & Success informs the student in writing that the student is expelled from the College. An appeal of the expulsion decision can be made through the appropriate Academic Division Dean. Students should follow the academic appeals process as outlined in the College catalog. Notification of the decision is also given to the student’s current instructor(s), academic advisor, academic deans, satellite campus deans, and security staff at all campuses.

   Maintaining an account of all infractions will be the responsibility of the Office of the Vice President of Learning, Student Engagement & Success.

III. Disciplinary Sanctions

When students violate College regulations, they are subject to disciplinary action by the College. Disciplinary action may be initiated by a complaint by any person of the College. If a student violates the Student Code of Conduct Policy, the faculty or staff member should report the violation to the Office of the Dean of Student Retention & Success and/or Campus Security. The Dean or his/her representative shall investigate all complaints and will assign in writing formal sanctions if justified. Once formal sanctions have been determined, the student may appeal the decision. The Student Code of Conduct sanctions are listed below. These sanctions seek to preserve flexibility in the imposition of punishment and do not imply an order or sequence of sanctions. The sanctions in each case will be determined by the factors related to the specific case.

Sanctions include the following:

• Reprimand – A written communication which gives official notice to the student that he/she has violated the Student Code of Conduct and that any subsequent violation of the Student Code of Conduct may carry heavier penalties because of this prior infraction.

• General Probation – An individual may be placed on general probation when involved in a minor disciplinary offense. General probation has two important implications: first, the individual is given the chance to show his/her capability and willingness to observe the Student Code of Conduct without further violation; second, if an additional violation occurs, additional sanctions will be imposed. The probation will be in effect for no more than two terms.

• Restrictive Probation – Restrictive conditions may limit activity or access to certain places within the College community. Generally, the individual will not be eligible for initiation into any local or national organization, and may not receive any College award or other honorary recognition. This probation will be in effect for no more than two terms. Any violation of restrictive probation may result in immediate suspension.

• Restitution – A student may be required to pay for damaging, misusing, destroying, or losing property belonging to the College, College personnel, or student(s).

• Loss of academic credit for a course – This may be imposed as a result of severe or repeated academic dishonesty. Note: The instructor may impose loss of credit or grade for an individual assignment or assignments as an alternative.
