

LPN TO ADN TRANSITION PROGRAM

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS SPRING ADMISSION

MISSION STATEMENT

The LPN to ADN Transition program supports the mission of the North Carolina Community College System and the mission of Vance-Granville Community College (VGCC). The faculty is committed to providing accessible high-quality nursing education to meet the diverse and changing healthcare needs of the service area and to promoting the development of qualified students prepared for the professional role of registered nurse at the entry level. Graduates of this program meet the educational requirements to take the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX-RN®).

ADMISSION PROCEDURES

Students are admitted to the LPN to ADN Transition program (A45110L) in accordance with policies set by VGCC. Each applicant is required to meet the minimum admission eligibility requirements as set by the College. Meeting minimum eligibility requirements does not guarantee admission into the program, only an opportunity for consideration. Completion of the VGCC LPN to ADN Transition program does not guarantee success in passing the National Council Licensure Exam (NCLEX®).

The selection process for this program includes: PROGRAM APPLICATION Process Completion (must be completed for consideration for the LPN to ADN Transition Program). Regulations, procedures, and course requirements are subject to change as necessary and without prior notice.

NOTE: This program is offered at the Main Campus in Henderson.

PROGRAM APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Apply to VGCC. Designate LPN to ADN Transition program as the desired program of study. Deadline for the online application to VGCC for the Spring Admission to the LPN to ADN Transition Program is the last business day in September. Applicants will be placed into a Pre-Health Curriculum (Associate in General Education-General Science A10300S), until selected into the program. 3. Schedule a meeting with your Academic Advisor Mrs. Waddle at waddlet@vgcc.edu or Mrs. O'Geary at ogearya@vgcc.edu

4. Schedule a meeting with the Consultation Committee for the VGCC Nursing Programs. Please see the specific nursing program website for contact information. Contact the School of Health Science Administrative Assistant, Ms Audrey Stainback at stainbacka@vgcc.edu

5. The PROGRAM APPLICATION PROCESS deadline is the last business day in October.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK: VGCC cautions applicants that the North Carolina Board of Nursing (NCBON) on its application form asks the following question: "Have you ever been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony (excluding a minor traffic violation?" The NCBON reserves the right to refuse to grant graduates a nursing license even if the graduate passes the NCLEX-RN based on their past criminal record. If this will hinder your progression, please visit the VGCC Admissions Office for more information on alternative programs of study at VGCC.

The school of Health Sciences (SHS) strives to provide admission processes that are fair and equitable for all students who have the desire to become a healthcare professional. Additionally, we have an obligation to set our students up for programmatic success and board passage.

The new SHS admission processes for Nursing will select students based on the completion of the listed minimum requirements and on a first completion basis. If nursing is your program of choice, it is important that you begin the process now.
